PROFILE

I am a fast, resourceful freelance editor with over 18 years experience in broadcast editing.

Working across all genres of broadcasting, I have the skills and ability to edit a broad range of productions; from fast-paced, music driven formats requiring a high level of technical expertise, speed and creative flair, through to narrative focused programmes that call for careful pacing and perceptive story-telling.

Since going freelance in 2010 the main focus of my work has been studio based programmes. Earlier this year 3 series' I worked on were aired on BBC1 Saturday night at prime time for 20 consecutive weeks - Who Dares Wins, Impossible Celebrities and Catchpoint,
